

WEDNESDAY 8/10

- 19.30 Jadviga's pillow / Jadviga párnája (Hungary, 2002)
directed by Deák Krisztina, drama, 130 min, eng subtitles History of an unhappy "ménage à trois" in a small town in south-eastern Hungary, set during World War I.
 followed by a discussion with the director*

THURSDAY 9/10

- 18.30 Edi (Poland, 2002)
directed by Piotr Trzaskalski, drama, 100 min, eng subtitles
A Zen tale of the tragic love between a princess and a well-read homeless tramp.
- 20.30 The Idiot Returns / Návrat idiota (Czech Republic, 1999)
directed by Saša Gedeon, drama, 103 min, eng subtitles
How does a person returning from an institution into the "normal" world perceive our everyday reality?

FRIDAY 10/10

- 18.30 The City of the Sun / Slnčný štát (Slovak Republic, 2005)
directed by Martin Šulík, bitter comedy, 95 min, eng subtitles Bad luck? These four friends, jobless and desperate, know just what that means...
- 20.30 May Day Mayhem! / Csocsó (Hungary, 2001)
directed by Koltai Róbert, comedy, 94 min, eng subtitles Natural born optimist in an inhuman world, set in the fifties in Hungary.

SATURDAY 11/10

- 18.30 Other worlds / Iné svety (Slovak Republic, 2006)
directed by Marko Škop, documentary, 78 min, eng subtitles
The Šariš region? Local Slovaks, Ruthenians, Jews and Gypsies will tell you all about it...
- 20.00: A Town Called Hermitage / Poustevna, das ist Paradies! (Czech Republic, 2007)
directed by Martin Dušek and Ondřej Provozník, documentary, 74 min, eng subtitles 2007's best Czech documentary about the surprisingly multi-ethnic and multi-cultural community of Poustevna, a small town on the CZ/DE border.
 followed by a discussion with the directors*

SUNDAY 12/10

- 18.30 Csak szex és más semmi / Just sex and nothing else (Hungary, 2005)
directed by Goda Krisztina, comedy, 97 min, eng subtitles
She wants a baby but as for the guys, it's just sex and nothing else...
- 20.30 The Wedding / Wesele (Poland, 2004)
directed by Wojciech Smarzowski, tragicomedy, 109 min, eng subtitles Please don't drink too much at the wedding! Dark satire about love and money and love of money.

MONDAY 13/10

- 18.30: Czech Dream / Český sen (Czech Republic, 2004)
directed by Vít Klusák, Filip Remunda, documentary, 87 min, eng subtitles Hypermarket – my temple... Shocking glimpse of the power of consumerism and marketing. Probably the biggest hoax in Czech cinematography.
- 20.30: Documentary shorts (check our website: www.polska.lu/filmfest)

TUESDAY 14/10

- 18.30: Half-life / Polčas rozpadu (Slovak Republic 2007)
directed by Vlado Fischer, drama/comedy, 100 min., eng subtitles
You have everything, so why not spoil it by having an affair? A story from contemporary Bratislava.
- 20.30: Saviour Square / Plac Zbawiciela (Poland, 2006)
directed by Krzysztof Krauze & Joanna Kos-Krauze, drama, 105 min, eng subtitles
A true story about how (lack of) money can ruin everything.

WEDNESDAY 15/10

- 18.30 Wrong Side Up / Příběhy obyčejného šílenství (Czech Republic, 2005)
directed by Petr Zelenka, comedy, 107 min, eng subtitles
A paid voyeur, a mannequin fetishist, a charity freak... extraordinary people in the circle of "ordinary madness".
- 20.30 Taxidermia (Hungary, 2006)
directed by Pálfi György, drama/bizarre, 90 min, eng subtitles Grotesque tale of three generations of men. Obesity, obsession and taxidermia... Shocking? Disturbing? Disgusting? Sure! And beautiful too!

THURSDAY 16/10

- 18.30 District / Nyócker (Hungary, 2005)
directed by Gauder Áron, animated (not suitable for children), 87 min, eng subtitles Everyday life in the neighbourhood, hip-hop & oil powered Romeo/Juliette story in an animated reworking. Guest appearances by Osama BL and George WB!
- 20.30 Animated shorts
* followed by a discussion with animator/director Wojciech Bąkowski + Festival party at The Tube (22.00, free entrance) with DJ Puli!

FRIDAY 17/10

...A well-deserved break...

SATURDAY 18/10

- 18.30: March Caresses / Marcowe Migdały (Poland 1989)
directed by Radosław Piwowarski, drama/historical, 89 min, eng subtitles Teen alienation and political turmoil in 1968 Poland.
- 20.30: Divided We Fall / Musíme si pomáhat (Czech Republic 2000)
directed by Jan Hřebejk, drama/comedy, 120 min, eng subtitles
A touching story about the clash of heroism and generosity with collaboration and cowardice in Nazi-era Czechoslovakia.

SUNDAY 19/10

- 17.00 Bored in Brno / Nuda v Brně (Czech Republic, 2003)
directed by Vladimír Morávek, romantic comedy, 103 min, eng subtitles Erotica in a Czech town - desire for love has many faces...
- 19.00 Tricks / Sztuczki (Poland 2007)
directed by Andrzej Jakimowski, family, 95 min, eng subtitles Warm family story reminding you of your childhood summers.